

Harlech News

15th August 1404

12 shillings

Yesterday there was a battle at Harlech castle and now it is gone. The Welsh prince Owain Glyndwr, wanted war because he did not like the English ruling him and ruling the Welsh land. We are still not sure if anyone is alive but we know the King is dead. The Castle has been burnt to ashes. Owain Glyndwr has an army of 10,000 men, they weren't able to fight them off.

We expect the new King will be Edward II but we don't know. Some eye-witnesses have talked to us and said "about a quarter of Glyndwr's soldiers had died" Stay safe until further notice.

Owain Glyndwr as he rides into Battle

ADVERTISEMENT: Harlech bakery has half priced bread every other Monday!! Starting now.